The Pop Icon Promises a Jaw-Dropping Performance on February 4, the Same Day as the Big Game, Concluding Four Days of World-Class Concerts at Mystic Lake Casino Hotel

PRIOR LAKE, Minn. (December 11, 2017) – Less than 60 days away from the start of Super Week in the Greater Minneapolis area, the Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux Community's Mystic Lake Casino Hotel and Club NOMADIC, the world-famous traveling night life experience, today announced that American pop star Gwen Stefani will take the stage on Sunday, February 4 as the final headlining performer for Club NOMADIC. Stefani joins the world-class entertainment lineup of performances headlining at the VIP nightclub venue starting February 1 and puts an exclamation mark on four days of blockbuster concerts at Mystic Lake Casino Hotel.

In the last several weeks, The Chainsmokers (Thursday, Feb. 1), Ellie Goulding and Kygo (Friday, Feb. 2) and Florida Georgia Line (Saturday, Feb. 3) were announced to take center stage for the four days of Super Week at Club NOMADIC. The 64,000-square-foot traveling night-life venue that was unveiled earlier this year in Houston features tiered mezzanines, providing an ultimate entertainment experience for ticket holders. The venue, with a maximum capacity of 9,500, will provide an unparalleled, intimate setting and deliver an up-close-and-personal experience for everyone in attendance.

"Gwen Stefani will deliver an unforgettable performance on Sunday night, and we are excited to bring her to the Twin Cities to close out what we all know will be four days of remarkable entertainment at Mystic Lake Casino Hotel," said Angela Heikes, president and CEO of the Shakopee Mdewakanton Sioux Community's Gaming Enterprise, which owns and operates Mystic Lake Casino Hotel and Little Six Casino. "We are excitedly counting down the days to this star-studded weekend of performances."
